Epic Fishing Trips - https://www.epicfishingtrips.co.uk/ New Quay	Timothy Harrison Standard	Our Epic fishing trips take place in one of the UK's richest environments for marine wildlife. We are lucky enough to see some wonderful sights almost on a daily basis. From dolphins to porpoise and seals to rare sea birds, our trips are blessed with some amazing wildlife sightings. The bottlenose dolphins grow up to 4.5 metres in length and frequently will swim alongside the boat as we cruise to the fishing grounds. Whilst fishing the shy harbour porpoise sometimes passes by and a seal may pop up at any time.
Mayberry Kayaking - https://www.mayberrykayaking.co.uk Goodwick	Mike Mayberry Standard	Kayak Among Beautiful Scenery, Rare Birds, Seals and Even Dolphins Enjoy the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park with a sea kayaking tour in Britain's only coastal national park, an area that was voted second best coastal destination in the world by both National Geographic and Lonely Planet readers. Other places simply do not have the scenery, the tides, the wildlife or the rugged coastline for rock-hopping that Pembrokeshire

		does. With famous tide races such as the Bitches, Atlantic swells travelling from as far away as the Caribbean, offshore islands and the Gulf Stream to warm the waters, Pembrokeshire really is a sea kayaking mecca.

Dolphin Spotting Boat Trips (New Quay) www.newquayboattrips.co.uk	Jonathan Evans, George Walton, Connor Williams, Dafydd Lewis, Sarah Wyr Standard	Over half a century of experience in providing safe, enjoyable and informative trips for all ages on our purpose built passenger boats and private hire vessel. Our WiSe qualified boat masters follow a local voluntary code of conduct to offer great views of wildlife without disturbance. We are also Sea Watch Foundation recommended Boat Operators and monitoring is carried out on board most trips. Spot bottlenose dolphins socialising and feeding in the bay, sometimes harbour porpoise, grey seals in the water or hauled out on rocks near Birds Rock where approximately 5000 pairs of auks nest.
UWC Atlantic www.uwcatlanticexperience.com	Richard Carpenter, Jessica Moon Bowen Adventure	We offer outdoor activities in a unique environment of a castle by the sea. We also venture into the local national parks and explore caves, gorges and mountains where we get to experience nature and wildlife.
Adventure Beyond & Cardigan Bay Active www.adventurebeyond.co.uk	Anastasia Sevcova, Clare Rutter Adventure	Adventure Beyond provides a range of land and water adventurous activities and experiences such as rock climbing, archery, gorge walking, coasteering, canoeing, sea kayaking and stand up paddleboarding (SUP). We operate along the coastline and inland in Ceredigion and

		Pembrokeshire across west and south-west Wales. Cardigan Bay Active provides canoeing, kayaking and SUP experiences and hire from its riverside centre in the historic market town of Cardigan, within reach of the Teifi Gorge, the Teifi marshes Nature Reserve and the Teifi estuary where to meets the waters of Cardigan Bay between Poppit Sands and Gwbert.
Sea Kayak Guides www.seakayakguides.co.uk	Ben Fothergill Adventure	Freelance sea kayak instructor. Sea Kayak Guides (SKG) was founded in 2008 and is based on the St David's peninsula in the wild west of Wales, where the large tidal ranges and flows combine with Atlantic swells to create a truly unique sea kayaking venue. Pembrokeshire was recently voted '2nd best coastal destination in the World' by National Geographic and Lonely Planet readers. We might be somewhat biased but we think that this is THE best sea kayaking destination in the world. From the peaceful bays and sandy estuaries to the dramatic cliffs and off-shore islands, we can offer learning experiences for all levels of ability.
